Regulation D Regarding Overdraft

Under Federal Regulation, only 6 (six) unsigned and/or automatic transfers may be made from a savings account each month. This includes telephone transfers, automatic overdrafts from savings or line of credit, audio response transfers, and internet transfers. Keep this in mind when depositing to checking or savings. If you are over the 6 (six) transfer maximum, your check(s) may be returned NDF even if you have funds available in your savings or your line of credit.
